Mr.V.G.Mathew

Mr. V.G Mathew joined South Indian Bank as Executive Vice President on 2nd January 2014 after working for State Bank of India for thirty five years.He has done his graduation and post graduation from University College, Trivandrum and is also a certified Associate of Indian Institute of Bankers. He joined State Bank of India as a Probationary Officer in 1978 in Ahmedabad Circle. He was also deputed by State Bank of India to its Paris Office as Head of Systems Department for four Years. He has also served as a member of important Committees such as Wholesale Banking Credit Committee, Corporate Centre Credit Committee, and Investment Committee while working as Chief General Manager at State Bank of India's Head Quarters in Mumbai.

Miss.Gayathri R Suresh

Gayathri did her schooling from Bharathiya vidhya Bhavan Poochatty in Trissur, and did her graduation in commerce from Vimala college Tcr.She has been extremely active in all cultural activities and has been elected as the fine arts secretary during her studies in Vimala college.Singing, dancing etc has been her passion. In the third year of her studies ,during a campus interview she was selected in South Indian Bank and now works as a SIB employee in the head office of SIB in Trissur.

A person who believes in god, Gayathri emphasises opportunity knocks on your door once in a while. You can take or ignore it. That has been the secret behind her success in becoming the Miss Kerala 2014.
