A graduate in Mechanical Engineering from Kerala University and MBA from the Calicut University. Started his career with Indian Hume Pipe Company Ltd, a member of the erstwhile leading conglomerate 'Walchand Hirachand Group' and was part of many mega infrastructure projects funded by World Bank in the 1980's. Was subsequently associated with a leading EPC company in Chennai and executed many projects in refineries, petrochemical complexes. Joined Rubfila to manage the project to set up its plant at Kanjikkode and handled various functions in the company before leaving the company for a brief period handling consultancy projects. He was brought back by the Board to head the company as COO in 2007 and was made the MD in 2008.

He is currently the President of Palakkad Management Association. He was the Zonal Chairman for Palakkad for Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) for 3 years from 2007 and was an elected member of Kerala State Council of CII from 2007 to 2011.
